From humble beginnings in June 1950, Day & Ross General Freight has grown to become one of the largest national LTL and TL transportation companies in Canada. While the company's head office is located in Hartland, New Brunswick, Day & Ross is recognized as one of Canada's only National carriers serving all 10 provinces. Day & Ross is part of the Day & Ross Transportation Group, a wholly owned subsidiary of McCain Foods Limited. The Day & Ross Group offers a complete range of transportation services through five functional divisions

MCB Series Cross Ventilation Cartridge Dust Collector. Designed by the leading air quality experts at United Air Specialists, this completely self-contained system provides high-filtration efficiency, freedom from source capture obstructions and easy maintenance.

Performance guarantee to comply with local and federal clean air regulations
